

La Rouvenède - location saisonnière de studios dans une résidence de charme à Ramatuelle

-- Your leisure near La Rouvenède --

Your leisure near
La Rouvenède

Résumé :

The markets of Provence in the Gulf of Saint-Tropez

The markets of Provence

Picturesque markets of Provence in the whole Gulf of
Saint-Tropez

Bernard Persin

Publié le lundi 1er mai 2006

Fichier PDF créé le mardi 9 mai 2006

During your stay in Ramatuelle, you will certainly appreciate the warm ambient of the picturesque markets of Provence, starting as soon as the first sun rays are out, come and profit from the scents, the colours and good humour.

We propose here a list of the markets of Provence in all the cities of the gulf of Saint-Tropez, starting from the closest to the farthest to your departure spot : "La Rouvenède" !

Ramatuelle

The market takes place on the place de l'Ormeau

- Thursday mornings
- Sunday mornings

Saint-Tropez

The market takes place on the place des Lices

- Tuesday mornings
- Saturday mornings
- There is also a small fish market every morning except on Mondays, behind the tourism office on the port.

La Croix-Valmer

The market is set in the centre of the village, facing the tourism office. You can access it by the main roundabout.

-
- Sunday mornings

Cavalaire

The market is situated on the place Jean Moulin.

- Wednesday mornings

Cogolin

- Wednesday mornings on the place Victor Hugo (also known as "place des boules")
- Saturday mornings on the place de la République (in front of the town hall)

Port Grimaud

The market is on the place du marché

- Sunday mornings
- Thursday mornings

Plan de la Tour

On the place du boulodrome

- Thursday mornings

Sainte-Maxime

There are several markets :

- food market on the avenue Georges Pompidou on Thursday mornings
- food market and regional products on the place Jean Mermoz (also known as the place du marché) on Friday mornings.

La Garde Freinet

- Wednesday mornings on the place Neuve

Sunday mornings at the centre of the village

Collobrières

Sunday mornings at the centre of the village